INTROIT

* OPENING HYMN NO. 400 "Come Thou Font of Every Blessing"

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Strength is commanding the wind and sea to obey,
Strength is wielding a slingshot in the face of a raging giant.
 Strength is accepting vulnerability from inside the boat,
Strength is standing in solidarity with the powerless.
 Strength is turning a cheek,
Strength is loving an enemy.
 We come to worship
a God who redefines our vision of strength.

OPENING PRAYER

You speak in unexpected places, and with unexpected voices, Ever-loving God. And we aren't always sure how to listen. We aren't always sure who to listen to. We aren't always sure if we're really hearing you. Be blunt with us, please. Be clear. Give us the challenge of loving you, of loving the other, of loving ourselves. And help us to be prepared to live out that love. Because you are God who loves us all, even when we don't know where to turn. In Jesus' name, we ask it. Amen!

FOCUS OF LENT: Our Brokenness

Last week, we looked at how our excuses lead to brokenness.

"It's not my problem."

"Why should I repent?"

"I tell you....I don't know the man."

Today, we recognize our inclinations toward denial and the brokenness it brings. How can none of the world's problems – not be our problem? How can we continue to look the other way, cross to the other side of the road, and wait for someone else to come along and clean up our mess? If it is our habit to so easily deny, how can we be sure that we will not deny Jesus?

PAUSE FOR REFLECTION (breaking of the plate representing the brokenness of denial.)

RESPONSE (prayed together)

Holy Redeemer, we hear the resounding cry of the rooster. We need to find the courage and conviction of our faith. Help us to discover the strength you have promised.... the strength we need to live a life of faithful discipleship. Heal the brokenness of our world, our lives, and our hearts. Amen.

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING 1 Samuel 10:17-24 OT page 253

This is the Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S MUSIC "My God is so Big"
The Joyful Noises

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

CHILDREN MAY LEAVE FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL

CALL TO PRAYER

MORNING PRAYER & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

SECOND SCRIPTURE READING 1 Samuel 20:27-34 OT page 265

MESSAGE "Be Careful What You Wish For..."

One of the saddest stories in all the Bible, is the story of Saul.

Saul's story is a true tragedy, a life that contained so much promise, yet ends in a great and unnecessary defeat. This is the story of a side-tracked life that veered from God's path of righteousness.
