GRADUATION 2017

Congratulations Graduates, Howard, Mason, Miles and Winford. We are so proud of these four wonderful driven men. They are the reason we do what we do.

The graduation ceremony at Oaklyn Baptist Church (and a huge thank you to Cara, Matt and all the great people there for such a terrific job hosting and fooding!!) was a special day. We hope you enjoy these pictures.

Here is some news and a word from each of the four. Howard is working with Kevin Layton doing landscaping and doing vending on the waterfront as well as on Broadway Ave. Howard is a hustler, he has big plans and is putting them into action.

IHOC participated in the Collingswood May Fair on Saturday May 28, welcoming many friends and new inquiries to our work. Kathy Miraglia, Bill Schulze, Jean and Fred Astmann spent the day at our booth display as part of our outreach and community involvement. We shared the IHOC story, handed out materials, and received $140 in donations from those wanting to support our cause.

Mason is an accomplished chef and landed a job right away at Kitchen 519 E Eve-sham Road, Glendora NJ. Please make a reservation and eat there one night. The food is great and they give back to the community. Call 856 312 8629 to make your reservation. Tell them IHOC sent you.

"IHOC definitely helped me out a lot, I appreciate IHOC."

Winford is living at the Dambly House and going to his program. He says "Thank you to Sonya for welcoming into the program and for all the new friends he has made."

Miles is living at the Dambly House and working 6 days a week in Pennsauken.

Keep up with our grads from this year and previous years, join us any Wednesday night at the Dambly House for a 6 meal. If you are willing to make a meal for 10-12 people...even better, but not required. Please contact Tom Martin 856 308 6992, kenedyper@aol.com for information. The men would love to see you. They not only need us while they are in our houses of worship.
